

Moulton '91 to Lead North Carolina Medical Society

Dr. Michael P. Moulton '91, a board-certified specialist in Emergency Medicine, was installed as the 159th President of the North Carolina Medical Society at its Annual Meeting on Oct. 26, 2012, at the Raleigh Marriot City Center Hotel.

Since 1994, Moulton has been a practicing physician with Eastern Carolina Emergency Physicians in Wilmington. He has been highly involved over the years in a variety of leadership roles with the North Carolina Medical Society, serving on the Board of Directors since 2002. From 2001 to 2010 he was a North Carolina Alternate Delegate to the American Medical Association.

“I’m looking forward to working on behalf of my fellow physicians and physician assistants to protect the patient-doctor relationship and promote improved quality of care and patient safety,” Moulton said. “This is a turbulent phase in our nation’s health care history. As President of the Medical Society, I hope to help our state’s doctors successfully navigate the changes that are occurring. These are interesting times indeed for doctors.”

A native of Huntington Beach, California, Moulton received his undergraduate degree in Biology from the University of California, San Diego, and an MS in Biology from San Diego State University. He received his medical degree from the UT Health Science Center in San Antonio, and completed his residency at the Medical College of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.
