

Reunion Weekend 2012: Just Four Weeks Away

Dr. Carlos Pestana celebrated with alumni at the Reunion Weekend 2011 Gala.

With just four weeks until the “Denim & Diamonds” Reunion Weekend 2012 celebration, the Alumni Association and class agents are busy finalizing preparations and recruiting classmates for the two and a half day event this fall. From October 11-13, Reunion Weekend 2012 will feature campus tours, CME courses, student presentations, a family-friendly Texas-style barbecue, and an alumni gala with live auction.

The activities are open to all alumni and their family members and guests, with special reunion-year celebrations for the classes of 1972, 1982, 1987, 1992, 2002, and 2007. Of particular note, renowned author and founding director of our Center for Medical Humanities and Ethics, Dr. Abraham Verghese, will give one of the CME presentations, entitled “The Pen and the Stethoscope,” on Thursday evening, October 11 followed by our annual “Happy Rounds” Reception.

The activities are open to all alumni and their family members and guests, with special

Founding Faculty mixed and mingled with students at the Friday luncheon.

Members of the Class of 1981 celebrated their 30-year reunion at the Friday-night barbecue.
