The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
School of Medicine

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

The School of Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio seeks an individual with an outstanding record of scientific achievement, grant support, scholarly accomplishments and mentoring as its new Chair of the Department of Medicine. Dynamic leadership, communication and interpersonal skills, and keen vision are required. Reporting to Francisco González-Scarano, MD, Dean of the School of Medicine and Vice President for Medical Affairs, the Chair will be responsible for continuing to build and maintain robust clinical and research programs, high quality undergraduate (UME) and graduate (GME) medical education, and a collegial interactive culture. The UT Health Science Center is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and is committed to excellence through diversity among its faculty, staff and students including protected veterans and persons with disabilities.

Candidates must be eligible for professorship and tenure. The ideal candidate will have a widely recognized national reputation in their field, and the ability to foster a culture of collaboration, innovation, and accountability across the Health Science Center. This is a wonderful opportunity for a visionary leader. UTHSCSA is a research-intensive institution located in the Northwest region of San Antonio and sits as a gateway to the picturesque Texas Hill Country. San Antonio is a vibrant, dynamic, and multicultural city with much to offer, including attractive cost-of-living.

All faculty appointments are designated as security sensitive positions.
