

The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
Joe R. and Teresa Lozano Long School of Medicine

VICE DEAN FOR GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

The Long School of Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio (dba UT Health San Antonio) seeks an individual with an outstanding record of leadership and oversight of ACGME Graduate Medical Education Programs. Dynamic leadership, communication and interpersonal skills, and keen vision are required. Reporting to Dean of the School of Medicine and Vice President for Medical Affairs, the Vice Dean will be responsible for continuing to build and maintain robust GME programs that produce highly trained graduates in a collegial interactive culture. The UT Health Science Center is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and is committed to excellence through diversity among its faculty, staff and students including protected veterans and persons with disabilities.

Candidates must be eligible for professorship with tenure. The ideal candidate will have a widely recognized national reputation in their field. The ability to foster a culture of collaboration, innovation, and accountability, across the Health Science Center is important. This is a wonderful opportunity for a visionary leader. UTHSCSA is a research intensive institution located in the Northwest region of San Antonio and sits as a gateway to the picturesque Texas Hill Country. San Antonio is a vibrant, dynamic, and multicultural city with much to offer, including an attractive cost-of-living.

Interested individuals should submit a letter of interest along with a current CV electronically via the UT Health candidate portal at <http://uthscsa.edu/hr/employment.asp> to apply for position of Vice Dean, Graduate Medical Education.

All faculty appointments are designated as security sensitive positions.