Main Match ERAS/NRMP Checklists

You must register for ERAS before you can begin to work on your “MyERAS” application. The Undergraduate Medical Education (UME) Office will issue you a token for ERAS, which will be distributed to you via email. The text which accompanies your token provides you with information on how to register for ERAS. For your convenience, please find the following check lists to assist you in your application process for ERAS and NRMP. Keep in mind, you must register for both ERAS and NRMP to secure a position in the Main Residency Match. NOTE: If you are applying for an advanced PGY 2 position, OR a Urology or Ophthalmology position, you still must apply for a PGY 1 position through the Main Residency Match, so you must register for both ERAS and NRMP.

ERAS Checklist You will register for ERAS.

Medical School Performance Evaluation (“Dean’s Letter”) (Select) will be uploaded by the UME Office. NOTE: You MUST complete the MSPE Request Form and submit the $15.00 fee before the UME Office will upload your MSPE to the ERAS website-NO exceptions.

Medical School Transcript (Select) to be uploaded by the UME Office. NOTE: Please contact the UTHSCSA Registrar’s Office to send a copy of your Medical School Transcript to the UME Office to upload to ERAS.

Photograph upload JPEG electronic photo attachment.

Letters of Recommendation (LoRs) – You will enter the author’s information in ERAS. You will select up to 4 LoRs for each program. You will generate and provide the Letter Request Form for each letter author. Each letter author (or designee) must upload the LoR through the “LoR Portal” on ERAS.

Personal Statement(s) - You will create and upload the Personal Statement to ERAS.

USMLE Transcript- You will pay for the USMLE Transcript and authorize NBME to upload the USMLE transcript to ERAS. NOTE: The UME Office does NOT upload the USMLE Transcript to ERAS.

NRMP Checklist

You will register for the Main Residency Match (opens September).

You will electronically sign the Match Participation Agreement. Pay attention to the Terms of the Match Participation Agreement VERY carefully.

You will pay Match Fee (avoid $50 late fee by registering by November 30).

You will complete the Interviews (interviews begin in October and continue through February in general).

You will submit your Rank List to NRMP by the deadline.
